

Funeral Services Held Monday for Local Young Man

Louis Aebischer Rites Are Conducted at Alpine Springs

Funeral services were conducted at 2:00 Monday afternoon, May 11, in the grounds at Alpine Springs, for Louis Aebischer. The funeral was one of the largest held here for many years, and was particularly impressive held in the outdoor setting of the beauty spot that has been home to Louis since he came to Antelope Valley with his parents seventeen years ago.

Rev. Harvey A. Hood conducted the services, giving a sermon that was most helpful to the sorrowing relatives and friends. Joe Martin of Lancaster played the violin, and "Buddy" Hall and Mrs. Gwendolyn Scroggs of Palmdale sang. The following were honorary pall-bearers: Judge Wm. D. Keller, Dr. G. W. Todd, C. B. Lary, John Gibson, Max Godde, Bill Maggard of Los Angeles, Roy Hofbauer and Kirk McKeever. Active pallbearers were intimate friends of Louis: Hubert and Randall Tucker, Ed Lary, Harold Johnson, Norman Rader and John Denning. Interment was made in the Palmdale Cemetery.

Louis, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aebischer, died at the Palmdale Hospital Thursday morning, May 7, 1936, of double bronchial pneumonia, after an illness of a day. He was 28 years old at the time of his death, having been born February 15, 1908 in Geneva, Switzerland. He was educated in Antelope Valley schools. He was married September 10 of last year to Miss Marcile Hollmer of Clinton, Minn., niece of Mrs. Jonathon Matthews of Palmdale, and she and his parents survive.

Louis was well liked by all who knew him, and his untimely death comes as a distinct shock to all.
