

Pioneer Resident of Wilsona Dies at Age of 80 Years

Mrs. Hannah M. Huff to Be Buried
Friday Morning in Palmdale

Mrs. Aaron C. Huff, of the Wilsona District, passed away Tuesday, June 22, at the home of her son, J. B. Huff, in San Pedro, at the age of 80 years. She had been ill for about a year, during which time she had had two strokes.

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow, Friday, morning at 9:00 at San Pedro at funeral parlors, after which her body will be brought back to Antelope Valley for burial at the Palmdale Cemetery.

Hannah M. Lewis was born at Stillwater, New Jersey, March 1, 1857. She was married while still living in New Jersey to Aaron C. Huff, and they were the parents of two children, one daughter who died while they lived in the East, and Mr. Huff, now living in San Pedro.

Mr. and Mrs. Huff came to California in about 1906, living first at San Pedro. They came to Wilsona about 20 years ago, and lived at their ranch and community store there.

Mr. Huff survives, also the son, J. B. Huff, and three grandchildren, Mrs. Dolly Matay of Palmdale, Mrs. Verne Cyr of San Pedro, and Clifford J. Huff of San Pedro. There are three great grandchildren.
